

MARCUS & MILLICHAP ANNOUNCES STRING OF PROMOTIONS IN FORT LAUDERDALE OFFICE

By Justin Sumner

February 16, 2017 | Marcus & Millichap (NYSE: MMI), a leading commercial real estate investment services firm with offices throughout the United States and Canada, announced several executive-level promotions in the firm's Fort Lauderdale, FL office, according to Ryan Nee, vice president and regional manager.

David Greenberg has been named a senior managing director investments. Previously he was a first vice president investments. Greenberg specializes in hospitality property investments and is a senior director of Marcus & Millichap's National Hospitality Group. He has been with the firm since 2005.

Evan P. Kristol has been named a senior managing director investments. Previously he was a senior vice president investments. Kristol specializes in multifamily property investments and is a senior director of Marcus & Millichap's National Multi Housing Group. He has been with the firm since 1991.

Douglas Mandel has been named a senior managing director investments. Previously he was a senior vice president investments. Mandel specializes in institutional office and industrial property investments and is a senior director of Marcus & Millichap's Institutional Property Advisors Office and Industrial. He has been with the firm since 2004.

Lori Schneider has been named a senior managing director investments. Previously she was a senior vice president investments. Schneider specializes in institutional retail property investments and is an executive director of Marcus & Millichap's Institutional Property Advisors Retail. She has been with the firm since 1999. In 2016, Schneider ranked as the number one broker nationwide for multi-tenant retail sales and she was in the top 10 retail sales overall.

Steve Witten has been named a senior managing director. Previously he was a senior vice president investments. Witten specializes in institutional multifamily property investments and is a founding member of Marcus & Millichap's Institutional Property Advisors. He has been with the firm since 1999 and has more than 35 years of experience in multifamily analysis and brokerage.

Barry Wolfe has been named a senior vice president investments. Previously he was a first vice president investments. Wolfe specializes in both net-lease and multi-tenant retail property investments nationwide as a senior director of both Marcus & Millichap's National Retail Group and Net Leased Properties Group. He has been with the firm since 2001.

Marc Strauss has been named as a senior vice president investments. Previously he was a first vice president investments. Strauss specializes in multi-tenant retail shopping centers and net-lease retail investments and is a senior director of Marcus & Millichap's National Retail Group. He has been with the firm since 1997.

<http://www.costar.com/News/Article/Marcus-Millichap-Announces-String-of-Promotions-in-Fort-Lauderdale-Office/188864>

